New Orleans, Louisiana

The Old Metairie Garden Club will be hosting its first Old Metairie Spring Arts Festival on Saturday, March 7th, 2020 from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. on Canal Street, between Focis St. and Papworth Ave., in Metairie. (Rain date is Sunday, March 8th at the same time.) This art festival was conceived by Ana Borden, who serves as the Director of Arts Festival for the Old Metairie Garden Club and is a local artist and Architect in New Orleans, along with the founder and first President, Carmen Waring of the Old Metairie Garden Club. The art festival will feature hundreds of original artwork for sale from a variety of talented artists, food and an array of fun family and art based activities, including live entertainment by T'Monde.

The Old Metairie Garden Club's Old Metairie Spring Arts Festival is a great way to show support for the Jefferson and Orleans Parish's visual arts community. This event would not be possible without the support of its sponsors: Faubourg Private Wealth, AMB2 Architecture, Carmen Waring with Latter and Blum, and our Jefferson Parish Councilwoman, Jennifer Van Vrancken.
